

bpl technology is redundant- therefore unnecessary. the potential for interference to broadcast and other radio services is considerable, based on pilot studies already conducted. i urge you not to allow this technology to proceed.